

The First Book in the Library

Edgelands Arts have been commissioned to create the first book in the new library at Birkby, and we want you, the local community to fill it with your stories, hopes and dreams. This book will take pride of place in the new Birkby Library when it opens in June 2021

I Am From...

Our fourth challenge is all about belonging...

Write us a poem about with the title,

I Am from Birkby & Fartown – use the templates provided on our website www.edgelandsarts.co.uk/birkbyandfartownlibrary or create your own. Join us online to write a collaborative poem or write them at home and send them to us.
